DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

Claims 1, 8-11, 12, 18-21, 24, 26, 29, 30, and 33-36 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Wallace in view of Kedge.

See discussion in previous office action.

Claims 3, 13, 27, 28, 31, and 32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Wallace in view of Kedge and further in view of Lynch.

See discussion in previous office action.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 26 November 2003 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant argued that the keys of Kedge are structural and not displayed. However, Kedge is used for its selective display. The keys of Wallace are part of the LCD screen as claimed. Kedge is simply used to teach the selective display according to a status of the device.

Applicant also argued that Wallace and Kedge are not analogous art. However, the use of LCD screens is widely known across many arts. A door handle to an automobile is not necessarily non-analogous to a door handle for a refrigerator. In this case, Wallace and Kedge teach devices having interactive screens, the functions of which are generic to many arts.

The examiner also reiterates his position that it would have been obvious to extend the selective display of buttons to each operation of the device, so as to simplify the display in each instance.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
